RECIPROCITY INFORMATION

The State of Mississippi has entered into reciprocal agreements with the following licensing boards:

Alabama General Contractors Board – Mechanical and Plumbing excluded
Alabama Board of Heating and Air Conditioning Contractors
Alabama Electrical Board
Arkansas Contractors Licensing Board – Mechanical and Electrical excluded
Georgia Board of Residential and General Contractors
Louisiana Licensing Board for Contractors – Mechanical excluded; Electrical excluded unless exam taken in LA
North Carolina Electrical Contractors Board
South Carolina Contractors Licensing Board – Building (unlimited), master electrician exams only. *Only PSI, Experior, Block or NAI exams accepted
Tennessee Board for Licensing General Contractors

Reciprocity refers to waiver of a TRADE EXAMINATION only. All applicants are required to take the Mississippi Law and Business Management examination and complete an application and submit it to the Mississippi State Board of Contractors to be considered for licensure. All other requirements of the board must be met before a Certificate of Responsibility or license number will be issued.

In order for the Mississippi State Board of Contractors to consider an applicant for reciprocity, the following requirements must be met.

- 1. The applicant must show proof of current licensure with one of the boards referenced above by providing a completed verification form. (See attached.) The applicant must have held the license for 3 consecutive years and be free of any disciplinary action taken against it during the 3 year time frame.
- 2. The applicant must complete and submit an application with all required documentation and fees to the Mississippi State Board of Contractors.

NOTE: Applicant must complete Part 1 of the attached verification form and mail to one of the above named states to complete Part 2. Reciprocity does not apply to any states or agencies not listed above.
